

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

April 21, 2017

Dear Colleagues:

The Directorate for Mathematical and Physical Sciences (MPS) will conduct the next meeting of the Advisory Committee (AC) on Thursday, June 15, and Friday, June 16. A draft agenda is being prepared and will be sent out before the meeting.

John Gillaspay is the liaison for the MPSAC. If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact him at 703-292-7173 or at jgillasp@nsf.gov. Chris Coox will soon send you information concerning logistical arrangements for the meeting. You may reach Chris at ccoox@nsf.gov or at 703-292-5137 for more information.

We will be in touch soon by email to provide more detailed instructions.

I look forward to a productive meeting in June.

Sincerely,
