Implementation Plan
January 2011

The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) intends to adopt the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) for performance reporting for the following NEH programs as soon as possible, but no later than the end of fiscal year 2012:

Division of Research Programs:

Collaborative Research

Division of Education Programs:

Humanities Initiatives at Historically Black Colleges and Universities

Humanities Initiatives at Institutions with High Hispanic Enrollment

Humanities Initiatives at Tribal Colleges and Universities

Office of Challenge Grants:

Challenge Grants

Challenge Grants for Two-Year Colleges

Division of Preservation and Access

NEH will implement the RPPR in an electronic format that will be available to grantees via the agency's electronic grant management system, "eGMS". For the grant programs listed above, the RPPR will supersede the NEH's Performance Reporting Requirements, (OMB #3136-0134).

Usage of the RPPR is being considered by the remaining NEH divisions and offices, final decisions to be determined at a later date.
