We investigated allegations that an award recipient may be misspending the award money, and may have made false statements in the proposals regarding their ethnicity. We reviewed the relevant NSF awards¹, interviewed the NSF Program Officer² and potential witnesses, conducted financial research, and reviewed award drawdowns. Our investigation found no evidence of award money being misused. Our investigation also found that the award recipient made no false statements in his NSF award proposals in regards to his ethnicity. There are no unresolved issues.

Accordingly, this case is closed.
