Dear Colleague:

Please note that the program announcement for the CISE Educational Innovation (EI) Program [NSF 00-33] is no longer current. A new program announcement, soon to be published, will have a proposal submission date of November 4, 2002. This change reflects the NSF - EIA Division's intention of running the program every other year as well as revisions that are being made to the program.

Sincerely,

W. Richards Adrion
Division Director
