POSITION VACANT: Science Education Analyst (Assistant Program Director), AD-1701-2.
Annual salary ranges from $47,910 to $88,770.

LOCATION: Directorate for Education and Human Resources, Division of Human Resource Development and the Division of Research, Evaluation, and Communication, Arlington, VA.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VIII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

This position is that of an Assistant Program Director in the Division of Human Resource Development (HRD), Directorate for Education and Human Resources. HRD serves as a focal point for NSF's agency-wide commitment to enhancing the quality and excellence of science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) education and research through broadening participation by underrepresented groups and institutions. The Division's programs aim to increase the participation and advancement of underrepresented minorities and minority-serving institutions, woman and girls, and persons with disabilities at every level of the science and engineering enterprise. The Assistant Program Director conducts analyses and assists in the operation of the Division's programs. Makes judgments that demonstrate comprehension of STEM education and an understanding of the changes needed to make STEM education more accessible to underrepresented populations. Participates in assessments of programs to improve STEM education. Makes recommendations to the Division staff concerning topics, priorities, and plans for evaluation studies. Prepares profiles of HRD programs to quantify various aspects of division activities. Profiles may include longitudinal data and/or future projections of funding, programs, proposal loads, awards, staff allocation, and the relationship between these and other attributes. Engages in short-term, quick-response analyses of policy, programmatic and evaluation issues. Involves himself or herself with Foundation-wide working groups, task forces, etc. in which his/her evaluation or substantive knowledge is expected to make a useful contribution.

Assists in the support of a healthy balance for all the needs in the STEM education enterprise through the evaluation and recommendation of grant proposals. Recognizes the essential characteristics of the proposed project and evaluates the significance of its objectives to the NSF mission. Assists in insuring the integrity and consistency in the grant/declination process consistent with conflict-of-interest rules. Assists in administering an effective, timely merit review process, with attention to increasing the size and quality of the review pool and insuring participation by women, minorities and persons with disabilities. Participates with more senior staff in the development of short- and long-range plans, establishing objectives for programs and program evaluation. Participates in the preparation of annual and long-range budget requirements. Recommends allocation and reprogramming of funds. Administer, perform oversight, and follow-up with grantees in such areas as finance, procurement, personnel, and facilities. Controls waste, fraud and abuse. Monitors resource allocation rates. Makes award and decline recommendations on proposals within the various programs of the Division. Provides standard documentation on proposal recommendations. Manages peer review system and post-award evaluation process. Keeps Division Director informed of important activities, significant achievements, and new trends and developments in program, division, and field.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Ph. D. in Education or any field of Science OR a Masters degree in Education or any field of Science, plus a minimum of two years of research experience, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the position; OR equivalent research experience.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

- Broad knowledge and understanding of scientific principles and theories applicable to undergraduate education in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM)
- Ability to assist in management of a diversity focused undergraduate program.
- Demonstrated skill in performing research, analytical and technical writing which evidence the ability to perform inquiry into a wide range of significant issues and make recommendations and decisions based on findings.
- Ability to interact with members of the scientific community, private sector and peers to effectively present and advocate program policies and plans.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s).
