Rotational Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT NO: E20040025-Rotators

OPEN: 12/09/2003

CLOSE: 03/02/2004

POSITIONS WILL BE FILLED ON A ONE OR TWO YEAR VISITING SCIENTIST APPOINTMENT, INTERGOVERNMENTAL PERSONNEL ACT (IPA) ASSIGNMENT BASIS, OR FEDERAL TEMPORARY APPOINTMENT.

The National Science Foundation is seeking candidates for several positions within the Division of Atmospheric Sciences, Directorate for Geosciences, Arlington, VA.

The Division of Atmospheric Sciences (ATM) supports research to add new understanding of the behavior of the earth's atmosphere and its interactions with the sun. Included are studies of the physics, chemistry, and dynamics of earth's upper and lower atmosphere and its space environment; research on climate processes and variations; and studies to understand the natural global cycles of gases and particles in earth's atmosphere. More information about the Division and their programs can be found on their website at www.geo.nsf.gov/atm/start.htm.

The Climate Dynamics Program in the Lower Atmospheric Research Section supports research on processes that govern climate and the causes of climate variability and change; methods to predict climate variations and assess their impact on human activities; assembly and analysis of modern climate data; development and use of climate models to diagnose and simulate climate and its variations. This position may be filled at the level of Associate Program Director.

The Physical Meteorology Program in the Lower Atmospheric Research Section supports basic research on the physics of the atmosphere with emphasis on cloud and precipitation physics, the transfer of solar and terrestrial radiation, atmospheric measurements including active and passive remote sensing, and atmospheric electricity and acoustics. The program also supports research in micrometeorology, particularly turbulence, boundary-layer processes, and wave phenomena. This position may be filled at the level of Program Director.

The University Corporation for Atmospheric Research (UCAR) and Lower Atmospheric Facilities Oversight Section participates in the oversight of the research and development programs and administration of UCAR, which includes the National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR), and the UCAR Office of Programs (UOP). The incumbent will coordinate and provide oversight of the extensive computational and data management activities within ATM and other geosciences; review and evaluate budget requests and long range plans; and exercises liaison functions. This position may be filled at the level of Program Coordinator.

These positions will be filled on a one or two year Visiting Scientist Appointment, under the terms of the Intergovernmental Personnel Act (IPA), or as a Federal Temporary Appointment.

Temporary and Visiting Scientist appointments will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act with a current salary range of $69,054 - $127,168, depending on qualifications and experience. For Visiting Scientist appointments, individuals are in a non-pay leave status from the home institution and are appointed to NSF's payroll as a Federal employee. NSF withholds FICA and provides reimbursement for fringe benefits. For Federal temporary appointments of more than one year, the usual civil service benefits (retirement, health and life insurance) are applicable. For IPA assignments, the individual remains an employee on the payroll of the institution and the institution continues to administer pay and benefits. NSF reimburses the institution for NSF's negotiated share of the costs. Individuals eligible for an IPA assignment include employees of State and local government agencies, institutions of higher education, Indian tribal governments, federally funded research and development centers and qualified nonprofit organizations. For more information regarding Visiting Scientist appointments or IPA assignments, visit our website at www.nsf.gov/jobs.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: As Program Director or Program Coordinator, directs (Associate Program Director assists) in the implementation, review, funding, post-award management, and evaluation of the program and contributes to the intellectual integration with other programs supported by the Division. Designs and implements the proposal review and evaluation process for relevant proposals. Selects well qualified individuals to provide objective reviews on proposals either as individuals or as members of a panel. Conducts final review of proposals and evaluations, and recommends acceptance or declination. Manages and monitors on-going grants, contracts, interagency and cooperative agreements to ensure fulfillment of commitments to NSF. Evaluates progress of awards through review and evaluation of reports and publications submitted by awardees and/or meetings at NSF and during site visits. Contributes to the responsibility for establishing goals and objectives, initiating new program thrusts and phasing out old projects. Recommends new or revised policies and plans in scientific, fiscal, and administrative matters to improve the activities and management of the Program.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: For the Program Director and Program Coordinator levels, applicants must possess a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in chemistry, engineering, environmental sciences, atmospheric sciences or a related field. In addition, six or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the program is required. For the Associate Program Director level, applicants must possess a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in the above disciplines. In addition, four or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the program is required.

HOW TO APPLY: Applications may be transmitted electronically to rotator@nsf.gov. Individuals may also submit a resume or any application of your choice to the National Science Foundation, Division of Human Resource Management, 4201 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, VA 22230, Attn: E20040025-Rotators. In addition, you are encouraged to submit a narrative statement that addresses your background and/or experience related to the Program of your interest. You are asked to complete and submit the attached Applicant Survey form. Submission of this form is voluntary and will not affect your application for employment (the information is used for statistical purposes). Telephone inquiries may be referred to Maria Sutton, at (703) 292-4364. Hearing impaired individuals may call TDD (703) 292-8044.

The National Science Foundation provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities on a case-by-case basis. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the point of contact listed on this vacancy announcement.
